AMONG THE DEAD .- Among the lost by the late disaster was Mr. James H. Collins, book keeper for Mr. Van Cott, and son inlaw of C. L. Sholes of the Free Democrat. He was a young man of excellent character, and had many warmly attached friends, and leaves a young wife to whom he was lately married. Mr. Collins was not of the excursion party, but was returning from a business visit to Chicago.

Doublas and the Tarter.-We yester day spoke of the cool and dastardly impudence exhibited by Mr. Donglas, in his speech at Harrisburg, Pa., last week in pretending to be in favor of a protective tariff.

Speaking on the same subject, the New for the profit of the east, etc. Abraham Lincoln has canvassed as openly and as ardently on the other side-the two agreeing that this question of protection was one of the most important and vital issues between ing badly in went of northern, and hopeless of southern votes, talks exactly as though he had been a zealous protectionist all his days; pitches into congress for not passing a protective tariff, and lays the blame on slavery agitation. He knows right well that the half-way republican house passed such a bill last winter, and every republican but two voting for it; that every republican in the senate desired to pass it, and that it was beaten by the democrats in that branch the few Americans in both houses general ly supporting it. There was ample time to pass it, and slavery agitation had no more to do with stopping it than the delnge. It was defeated simply because the democrats were nearly unanimous against this, or any other measure like it as Douglas well knows. Can it be that this man, by such reckless and brazen imposture, is clearing his way to the presidency?"

DEMOGRACY AND NEGRO EQUALITY. heg leave to call your attention to a little matter of history. If you will refer to the old constitution of Tennessee, adopted in 1796, I believe Art. 3d, Sec. 1st., you will see that there is no distinction made in color as to the qualification of voters; that Gen. Jackson is one of the signers, and that it was adopted by unanimons, consent.

THE STARTING POINT:-The starting point of the existing difference between the republicans and the democrats, on the popnlar sovereignty question, is just here. Reuan or divine, to enslave a minority. There is no such thing as a popular sovereignty which can shackle a living human being with chains, for any other purpose than as a punishment for crime, and a protection to society. No two men have the right, though they have the physical power, to make a slave of the third man. Hence the rule of ninjorities has no application, in this case. Such is republican doctrine, and it is found-and Baltimore, never even mentioned the homestead principle. In view of all these facts, we think the Times & Herald will have to do considerable special pleading to con-vince anybody that the charge that Doug-las is opposed to the homestead bill, is a

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their read merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are funded upon the very best securities in the world—list class honds and mortgages upon property in New York and Broaklyn-securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the finemations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of compatition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and occasional statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding visits, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capini lovice the amount, and in nost instances four times, needed for the reliarrance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence at the reliable for them the at the ord life for light of the reliance. Capital and Surrles, ____-

DOUGLAS AND THE TARIFF.-We yesterday spoke of the cool and dastardly impudence exhibited by Mr. Douglas, in his speech at Harrisburg, Pa., last week in pretending to be in favor of a protective tariff. Speaking on the same subject, the New York Tribune says:

man andacity, there is nothing equal to this. Just think of it! This man has been speaking and voting against the protective policy for twenty odd years : has repeatedly stumped Illinois against Henry Clay because of that policy, stigmatizing it as a contrivance to plunder the farmer to enrich the manufacturer, to burden the westfor the profit of the east, etc. Abraham Lincoln has canvassed as openly and as ar-dently on the other side—the two agreeing that this question of protection was one of the most important and vital issues between the two parties-and now, Mr. Douglas being hadly in want of northern, and hopeless of southern votes, talks exactly as though he had been a zealous protectionist all his days; pitches into congress for not passing a protective tariff, and lays the blame on slavery agitation. He knows right well that the half-way republican house passed such a bill last winter, and every republican but two voting for it; that every republican in the senate desired to pass it, and that it was beaten by the democrats in that branch. the few Americans in both houses generally supporting it. There was ample time to pass it, and slavery agitation had no more to do with stopping it than the deluge. It was defeated simply because the democrats were nearly unanimous against this, or any other measure like it, as Douglas well knows. Can it be that this man, by such reckless and brazen imposture, is clearing Correspondence of the Press and Tribune. KINGSVILLE, Johnson Co., Mo., (

Sept. 8, 1860. }
DEMOCRACY AND NEGRO EQUALITY.—I beg leave to call your attention to a little matter of history. If you will refer to the old constitution of Tennessee, adopted in 1796, I believe Art. 3d, Sec. 1st., you will see that there is no distinction made in color as to the qualification of voters; that Gen. Jackson is one of the signers, and that it was adopted by unanimous consent. All free persons, whether black or white, to my knowledge, were allowed to vote under said constitution. I suppose there are few if any democrats that will deny the democracy and patriotism of Andrew Jackson.

Respectfully, THE STARTING POINT .- The starting point of the existing difference between the republicans and the democrats, on the popular sovereignty question, is just here. Republicans deny that any majority of any people on God's earth, have any right, human or divine, to enslave a minority. There is no such thing as a popular sovereignty which can shackle a living human being with chains, for any other purpose than as a punishment for crime, and a protection to society. No two men have the right, though they have the physical power, to make a slave of the third man. Hence the rule of OF EVERY DESCRIPTION! majorities has no application, in this case. Such is republican doctrine, and it is founded in common sense and upon the principles. of common justice. - Wide Awake.

It has become fashionable of late for the republicans to charge Judge Douglas with. opposing the homestead hill. This is a simple falsehood.—Times & Herald.

Douglas has never voted for the homestead bill. Douglas, in all his highfaluting speeches, has never advocated the homestead principle. The party of Douglas, when framing their platform at Charleston and Baltimore, never even mentioned the homestead principle. In view of all these facts, we think the Times & Herald will have to do considerable special pleading to convince anybody that the charge that Douglas is opposed to the homestead bill, is a "simple falsehood," - Chicago Journal.

Douglas vs. Douglas and the Missourl Compromise.

From Douglas' Speech in Springfield, Ill., 1850. From Douglas' Speech in Springfield, III, 1850.
The Missouri Compromise had its origin in the hearts of all patriotic men who desired to preserve and perpetuate the blessings of our glorions. Union—on origin akin to that of the constitution of the United States, conceived in the same spirit of fraternal affection, and endentated to remove forever the only danger which threatens at some distant day, to sever the social bond of Union.—All the evidences of public opinion at that day seem to indicate that this compromise had become canonized in the hearts of the American people as a sacral thing, which no ruthless hand would ever be reckless enough to distarb." From Douglas' Speech at Providence, Aug. 3, 1860.

My friend over there—friend or enony, as the case may be—wants to know something about the Missouri Compromise. [Cheers.] I have not the slightest objection to telling him all he desires to know upon that question. I BROUGHT IN THE BILL TO REPEAL THE MISSOURI RESTRICTION.

How Non-Intervention Works.

From Douglas' Speech in the Sonate, May 16, 1860. "It is part of the history of the country that under is dectrine of non-intervention, this dectrine that you this dectrine of non-intervention, this dectrine that you delight to call squatter sovereignty, the people of New Mexico have introduced and protected elavery in the whole of that territory. Under this dectrine they have enverted a tract of free territory into slave territory, more than five times the size of the state of New York—Buder this dectrine elevery has been excluded from the Rio Granule to the Oulf of California, and from the line of the republic of Mexico, not only up to 86 deg.—90 min., but up to 85 deg.—giring you a degree and a half more stave territory than you ever claimed."

The County Ticket.

The ticket put in nomination by the republican county convention yesterday will be found at the head of our columns with the other nominees the republicans of the county are called upon to support. The ticket is an excellent one, and will meet with a cordial support throughout the county.

Mr. PUTNAM, the nominee for sheriff, has had an experience in the duties of the office for which he has been selected which abundantly qualifies him for a faithful and competent discharge of the labor that will be imposed upon him. An active and hardworking republican, he is worthy of the honors of the party as well as devoted to man and possesses the confidence of all who know him. As Treasurer, charged with the care of the public moneys and financial affairs of the county, he will display the same qualifications which distinguish him as a private citizen and which have characterized his acts in the publicpositions he has already filled.

MR. BEMIS is favorably known throughout the county. He has served faithfully and acceptably in other public stations, and the important duties of Register of Deeds may be safely entrusted to him.

Mr. Alben, in two years' service as Clerk of the Court, has given general satisfaction and his nomination is a deserved compliment to an able and honest public officer.

Mr. James has proved his fidelity and competency by one term of service in the office for which he is again named. There are no more complicated or responsible duties in the county than those required of the Cierk of the Board, and Mr. James has performed them in such a manner as induced the convention to again entrust them

Mr. SLOAN has a reputation for ability in his profession which places him in the front rank among the members of the bar. The appreciation of the manner in which he has filled the office of District Attorney for the last two years is attested by his re-nonina-

Ms. Ruges is a practical and highly qualified surveyor. He had no competitor in the convention, and those who may need his services may esteem themselves fortunate that so competent an officer has been furnished them.

Mr. Young, is case of the disability of the sheriff, may be called upon for important services. He is every way qualified for the special duties of his office, or those which may under peculiar circumstances, devolve upon him.

RACINE COUNTY NOMINATIONS.—The republicans of Racine held their county convention on Saturday. Gen. Ww. L. Utley was nominated for state senator. The county ticket is : For sheriff, H. T. Taylor; register, Cooper; treasurer, John P. Jones clerk of the board, J. S. Crane; clerk of court, D. P Wooster; district attorney, N. Dale; coroner, Abner Rouse.

The ticket is a strong one, and is bound to be elected. The republicans of Racine. intend to give from 800 to 1000 majority for Lincoln and Hamlin, and the entire ticket. THE HARVEST IN SOUTHERN RUSSIA .-

The wheat harvest is a beautiful one; but the quality of the wheat has been damaged by storms and the ravages of the locust. usually excellent one; but the needs of France will require all that Spain can supply. ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

A DESERTED TOWN.-The marshal makes ONSISTING in part of all Sizes and Styles of the return from Cold Spring township, Pennsylvania: Population, 141; no farms, no grain raised in the township; no churches, one school with 30 scholars, and 144 unoccupied houses. More empty houses than population. This extarordinary return has puzzled almost everybody. The fact is that a coal mine opened there, gave out, and the population has been obliged to emigrate. The Garden of Eden might have been located in Kansas. The Bible plainly says that the rivers of Paradise arose from one source, and flowing out of the garden, divided into four great rivers, running into different directions. No where but in the south part of Kansas is such a thing known on Such is the ticket nominated yesterday. Its election is a matter of course, but with this certainty of election is the fact that it is altogether worthy of support, and the convention has given the republicans of 'old Rock" a list of candidates they can not only vote for but sustain with zeal and beartiness.

Hon. Roscoe Conkling, in a recent speech said that Douglas experienced great difficulty in finding his mother, but the old lady would have still greater difficulty in finding him after election. That's so.

THE FUSION MOVEMENT.-General Lane s most anxious to see fusion succeed in New York, as he thinks it will ensure the Shirts, Collars, Cravats, Handkerciefs, defeat of Lincoln, and probably throw the election into the house and ultimately carry it into the senate where he feels confident he will be elected.

TIME WASTED .- Mr. Buchanan thinks it is necessary to write a letter for the purpose of disclaiming an assertion made by Douglas in one of his recent speeches. This is a mere waste of time. Nobody believes Douglas, and if they did he couldn't say Douglas, and if they did he couldn't say anything that would damage Buchanan.-He is past that.

Douglas vs. Douglas and the Missouri Compromise.

From Douglas' Speech in Springfield, Ill., 1850. From bouglas' Speech in Springfield, III., 1850.

The Missouri Compromise had its origin in the hearts of all patriotic men who desired to preserve and perpetuate the blessings of our glorious Union—on origin akin to that of the constitution of the United States, conceived in the same spirit of fraternal affection, and calculated to remove forever the only danger which threatens at some distant day, to sever the social bond of Union.—All the evidences of public opinion at that day seen to indicate that this compromise had become canonized in the hearts of the American people as a sacral thing, which no runbless hend would ever be reckless enough to disturb.

From Douglas' Speech at Providence, Aug. 2, 1860. My friend over there—friend or enemy, as the case may be—wants to know something about the Missouri Comeronise. [Cheers.] I have not the slightest objection to telling him all he desires to know upon that question. I EROUGHT IN THE BILL TO REPEAUTHE MISSOURI RESTRICTION.

How Non-Intervention Works.

"I believe that it is the right of the south to demand and the duty of congress to extend, projection of persons and property of every kind (including slaves) in the ter-ritories during their territorial state."—Herschel V.

From Douglas' Speech in the Scnate, May 16,1860. From Douglas' Speech in the Senate, May 16, 1860.

"It is part of the history of the country that under this doctrine of non-intervention, this doctrine that you delight to call squatter sovereignty, the people of New Mexico have introduced and protected slavery in the whole of that territory. Under this doctrine they have concerted a tract of five territory into slave territory, many than fire times the size of the state of New Pork,—Under this doctrine slavery has been extended from the Rin Grands to the Gulf of Culifornia, and from the line of the republic of Mexico, not only up to 35 deg.—giving you a degree and a half many slave territory than you ever claimed."

The Convention.

The task of selecting a county ticket was a difficult and embarrassin one. A large number of competent and worthy men were candidates for nomination, and personal friends urged their claims with earnestness and zeal. In the very nature of things more candidates and more friends must be disappointed than gratified. We had no fears that a good ticket would not be selected, but we did fear that the convention would separate in a spirit little favorable to a cordial support of the candidates who succeeded in the nomination. Our fears, however, were groundless. The convention adjourned with as little ill-feeling and with as much good will as any we have witnessed since the republican ascendancy in the county. The successful candidates of course felt well; the unsuccessful applicants submitted with good grace to the fortunes of the contest in which they had engaged .-Each would have expected the support of ing 1. his rivals if he had succeeded, and cach yields to the other what he would have asked for himself in the event of his own success. All admitthat the ticket finally selected is an excellent one, and though many would have wished a different selection somewhere among the candidates, the duty of acquiescing in a nomination fairly made is recognised and will be observed.

Republicans are united for the support of a principle, and are sensible that success can be achieved only through concession and harmony.

"CANDID JOURNALISM."-The Democrat shows its practice of caudid journalism by stirring together a long list of quotations from various persons to "prove" that the republican party designs to interfere with slavery in the states. To do this, it quotes from persons like Wm. Loyd Garrison, who does not and never did belong to the republican party; it also publishes language from acknowledged republicans which those republicans have denied and pronounced a forgery, like the sentiment attributed to name of Mr. West was withdrawn, at his Joshua R. Giddings that he looked forward with satisfaction to a servile insurrection in the south, when the torch of the incendiary shall light up the cities of that section of the country; in other instances, it detaches sentences from their text, so as to give them a different construction they intended to

It also charges the Gazette with writing the remarks attributed to Senator Seward in his address to the wide-awake club in Detroit in relation to Mr. Lincoln. Such "candor" is eminently worthy of the Democrat, which seems to have taken for its model the worst specimens of the democratic press.

Republican County Convention.

The republican county convention to nominate county officers, met at the court room in the city of Janesville, Thursday, the 13th of September, and was called to order at 12 o'clock M., by B. E. Hale, chairman of the county committee.

The county committee, through their chairman, recommended the appointment of a central committee of seven, one from each assembly district and one from each senatorial district, whose duty it shall be at once to appoint some person in each town pointed: to canvass said town and report to them.— They also recommended that the committee raise funds in each town sufficient to secure lecturers and a full supply of documents for general circulation.

On motion of Daniel Bennett, R. T. Powell, was chosen temporary chairman, and on motion of H. N. Comstock, N. F LUND was chosen secretary, pro tem.

A committee of three on credentials, consisting of E. R. Wadsworth, H. N. Comstock and T. E. Green was appointed by the chair, and a committee of five to report officers for the permanent organization, consisting of Orrin Guernsey, J. H. French, C. H. Conrad, W. H. Borden, and G. W. Reception of Gov. Seward in Madison.

Gov. Seward had an enthusiastic reception on his arrival in Madison Tuesday af-

A party, consisting of the state officers, the committees of reception on behalf of the state and the city of Madison, and Maytured with them.

Several thousand citizens, (says the Journal) had assembled at the depot, including the Dane Cavalry, Governor's Guard, Madison Guard, the fire companies, the Madison Turners and about two hundred of the Madison Wide Awakes in uniform, to greet the distinguished statesman of New York.

Immediately upon the arrival of the train the people througed about the car occupied by Gov. Seward in such numbers that it seemed at first impossible for him to leave it. Their close ranks, however, were opened, and a way made for his party, to the carriages which were in waiting.

A procession escorted the visitors to the Capital House, where Chauncey Abbott welcomed the New York Senator and his friends. Gov. Randall followed Mr. Abbott, and Mr. Seward responded. Gen. Nye and Chas. F. Adams were successively called and briefly addressed the multitude.

In the evening, the Madison Wide Awakes paid their respects to Mr. Seward at the residence of J. C. Hopkins, in whose family Mr. S. was a guest. Mr. S. made a brief address. Judge Goodrich of Minnesota, Chas. F. Adams, Gov. Randall, J. C. Hopkins, L. P. Harvey, and C. S. Chase of Racine, were called out and made short addresses that were well received.

During the forenoon of the succeeding day Mr. Seward received his friends in the executive room in the capitol.

RACINE COUNTY NOMINATIONS .- The republicans of Racine held their county convention on Saturday. Gen. WM. L. Utley was nominated for state senator. The county ticket is: For sheriff, H. T. Taylor; register, Cooper; treasurer, John P. Jones; clerk of the board, J. S. Crane; clerk of court, D. P Wooster; district attorney, N. Dale; coroner, Abner Rouse.

The ticket is a strong one, and is bound to be elected. The republicans of Racine, not pay. intend to give from 800 to 1000 majority for Lincoln and Hamlin, and the entire ticket.

THE HARVEST IN SOUTHERN RUSSIA .-The wheat harvest is a beautiful one; but the quality of the wheat has been damaged by storms and the ravages of the locust. The harvest of Spain is said to be an un usually excellent one; but the needs of France will require all that Spain can sup-

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

A DESERTED Town.-The marshal makes the return from Cold Spring township, Pennsylvania: Population, 141; no farms, no grain raised in the township; no churches, one school with 30 scholars, and 1-14 unoccupied houses. More empty houses than population. This exterordinary return has the Clerk of the Board, and Mr. James has puzzled almost everybody. Such is the ticket nominated yesterday. Its election is a matter of course, but with this certainty of election is the fact that it is altogether worthy of support, and the convention has given the republicans of 'old Rock" a list of candidates they can not only vote for but sustain with zeal and heartiness.

Hon. Roscoe Conkling, in a recent speech said that Douglas experienced great difficul. ty in finding his mother, but the old lady would have still greater difficulty in finding him after election. That's so.

THE FUSION MOVEMENT.-General Lane is most auxious to see fusion succeed in New York, as he thinks it will ensure the defeat of Lincoln, and probably throw the election into the house and ultimately carry it into the senate where he feels confident be will be elected.

TIME WASTED .- Mr. Buchanan thinks it is necessary to write a letter for the purpose of disclaiming an assertion made by Douglas in one of his recent speeches. This is a mere waste of time. Nobody believes Douglas, and if they did he couldn't say anything that would damage Buchanan.-He is past that.

3,168 D. W. LEWIS' BALANCE BEAM FORCE PUMP.—There have been many attempts, of late years, to improve and symplify the force pump, but no one, so far as our observation extends, has succeeded so well as Mr. D. W. Lewis of this city. It is a simple cylinder and piston, each with a single valve; the cylinder is attached to a rod, which reaches from the bottom of the well to the balance beam just below the platform; while the top part which reaches above the platform. extends to the bottom of the well and is at. tached to the piston below and the balance beam above. In this way the weight of the water, no matter how high the column, may be balanced by the rod and cylinder, and the resistance to be overcome in raising water is simply its friction on the sides of the pipe through which it flows. This is very small, and water may thus be drawn from the deepest drilled wells with great case, Mr. Hanford, of Emerald Grove, has one of these pamps in operation in a well 68 feet deep, and raises water for his stock as easily as from a thirty foot well. It is adapted to deeply drilled wells; and because of its simple construction it is not liable to get out of order, as all its bolts, screws, &c., are within reach, just under the platform

We are not in the habit of indiscrimin ately recommending patented improvements, but we have great confidence in Mr. Lewis' pump, because we have seen it work, and because his invention is sustained by the approbation of the mechanics of this city, who, we believe, unanimously give their testimony to its value.

CLARE ET AL VS. THE CITY OF JANES-VILLE.-This case came on for argument on demurrer to the complaint to-day at Jefferson, before Judge Orton. The court sustained the demurrer and gave judgment for the city. The plaintiffs at once appealed to the supreme court. We learn from Mr. Ely, attorney for the plaintiffs, that the point decided was that the charter of the city, not speakers, will be present and address the having been in force at the time the bonds were issued, the city could not subsequently in the state will be represented by one or so ratify them that an action at law could be maintained. That the common council tendents of Sabbath schools, are particular of Janesville could as effectually ratify the ly urged to be present. POPULATION OF THE COUNTY .- The re turns from the second assembly district, which we publish this afternoon, enables us to give the entire population of the county?

Janesville city, 7,792 7,075 Beloit district. Fulton district. Spring Valley district, 6,688 Milton district. 7,581 Total, 36,931

In 1850 the population of the county was 20,727; in 1855, 31,364. The whole number of farms returned for

1860 is as as follows: Milton district, 498 Beloit district, 938

Spring Valley district, Fulton district, 732 Total, D. W. Lewis' BALANCE BEAM FORCE

Pump. - There have been many attempts, of late years, to improve and symplify the force pump, but no one, so far as our observation extends, has succeeded so well as Mr. D. W. Lewis of this city. It is a simple cylinder and piston, each with a single valve; the cylinder is attached to a rod, which reaches from the bottom of the well to the balance beam just below the platform; while the top part which reaches above the platform, extends to the bottom of the well and is at. tached to the piston below and the balance beam above. In this way the weight of the water, no matter how high the column, may be balanced by the rod and cylinder, and the resistance to be overcome in raising water is simply its friction on the sides of the pipe through which it flows. This is very small, and water may thus be drawn from the deepest drilled wells with great ease, Mr. Hanford, of Emerald Grove, has one of these pumps in operation in a well 68 feet deep, and raises water for his stock as easily as from a thirty foot well. It is adapted to deeply drilled wells; and because of its simple construction it is not liable to get out of order, as all its bolts, serews, &c., are within reach, just under the platform where the balance beam is situated.

We are not in the habit of indiscrimin ately recommending patented improvements, but we have great confidence in Mr. Lewis on the street at 91c for No. 2 spring, and 94c for No. 1 pump, because we have seen it work, and do. At the opening of 'change the market was not so because his invention is sustained by the firm, and prices were 1/20 lower, and before the close 91 approbation of the mechanics of this city, who, we believe, unanimously give their testimony to its value.
